Dating: ca.1820's–30's

Item description from the seller:

1. Since the court of the Deorhi in the district of Rohtak received information about the case, it was brought to the attention of Mr. George Kamal Sahib Bahadur on the morning of March 2, 1826, that the plaintiff, Basti Ram, had not filed a claim. Therefore, following the instructions of the esteemed official, a detailed report is being prepared and submitted regarding the separation of this case, including the relevant details from the Kotwali's records and price list from July, 1821 till 14 Dec, 1822 for further investigation. Stamped by the court of Khalisa Sarkar Lahore.

2-2. Parwana in respect of Maharaja Sahib Bahadur issued on 23 February, 1833. Devi Singh lodged a report in court, stating that Mehr Singh, a resident of the village Khewrha, which is located at a distance of seven and sixteen miles in the British govt's territory, had arrested two girls. After the investigation, govt officials issued immediate orders for a thorough inquiry into the case. Upon investigation, it was revealed that Mehr Singh and Devi Singh, both Gujjars from Khewrha, kidnaped the girls and later fled towards Pehlor, which was under Maharaja Ranjit Singh's rule. Subsequently, Wakeel of Lahore Sarkar informed Major Sahib Bahadur, and both individuals were arrested from Pehlor.

Order: This warrant reached by Lala Kishan Chand, Wakeel of Lahore Sarkar, which included a request that in the village Pehlor and other areas under the jurisdiction of Maharaja Sahib Bahadur, wherever the traders mentioned in the warrant could be found, they should be promptly brought to court along with the two arrested girls. Ordered and signed by the official of East India Company.

3- 3. This Parwana was issued on 16 February, 1829 in respect of Captain Wade, Political Commander East India Company, with instructions that, according to the official statement made in Shahjahanabad, the public should be informed that the writing and distribution of the Lahore newspaper should only pertain to the official news of the high-ranking officials of the British Company. No other person is authorized to write for the newspaper. The Parwana was issued in the presence of Mr. Frieser Sahib Bahadur. In summary, it is strictly prohibited to send the newspaper to anyone other than the government authorities, and caution in this matter is crucial. For this reason, a request was previously submitted, and this letter has been received regarding the same. Signed and stamped by Raja Nihal Singh sahib bahadur on reverse side.
